DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. Claims 1-7 are pending.
2. Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected.
3. Claim 5 and 7 are objected.

Information Disclosure Statement

4. The information disclosure statement filed on October 3, 2003 has been reviewed and considered, see enclosed copy of PTO FORM 1449.

Claim Objections

5. Claims 5 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Each of these claims defines the variable of R^2 as a "hydrogen (C₁-C₆)alkyl" group, which does not make sense. It appears that a comma is missing after hydrogen and before the (C₁-C₆)alkyl. Consequently, the claims are rendered vague and indefinite.

8. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is presently not clearly understood to the skilled artisan as what is clearly embraced by the meaning of "suitable" with respect to "base", "leaving group", and "oxidizing agent." As a result, these ambiguous phrases do not clearly define the claims to one skilled in the art and, thus, render the claims vague and indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

11. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

12. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rover of U.S. Patent No. 5,292,732. Rover teaches of using the compound $\text{CHOCH}_2\text{CH}(\text{R}^1)\text{C}(=\text{O})\text{R}^2$, (see column 9, lines 1-10, compound XV, under the Reaction Scheme I). In particular, the instant compound is rendered obvious over the Rover compound XV, when R^1 and R^2 are aryl. The claims differ from the reference by reciting a larger genus than the prior art compounds. However, the selection of variable groups on the substituents groups on the instant claim, especially in view of the prior art compound XV and for the variables of R^1 and R^2 , is well within the level of the skilled artisan, because an ordinary artisan would have the reasonable expectation that any of the species of the prior art genus would have similar properties and, thus, the same use as the genus as a whole.

Subject Matter Free of the Prior Art

13. Claims 1-5 and 7 are free of the prior art of record.
